FOOD, DRINK AND ACCOMMODATION

The weekend event includes a drinks reception on Friday evening, a buffet on Saturday evening and Saturday and Sunday lunches.

Accommodation is not included, so you are free to make your own arrangements. You may wish to visit www.visit-burystedmunds.co.uk for a range of B&Bs and hotels in the area, or telephone 01284 764 667.

Booking

To book your place on the CBA Members’ Weekend, please complete the form opposite and return it to the address below. We will acknowledge your application on receipt. Alternatively, you can use the CBA’s secure online shop at www.archaeologyUK.org/cba-events

Partners

The CBA weekend is organised by the Council for British Archaeology, in partnership with CBA East and Norfolk Medieval Graffiti Survey.

BOOKING FORM

Please note that the weekend will include walking over rough and uneven terrain, and will be open to the elements. Please bring clothing appropriate for the weather with suitable footwear.

Name(s):

Address:

Number attending  Total cost

Early Bird booking before 30 June 2014 £275.
Full price £295. Add a donation: £

Payment options

• By cheque made payable to the Council for British Archaeology or via www.archaeologyUK.org/cba-events
• By credit/debit card, please indicate:

  ☐ Visa
  ☐ MasterCard
  ☐ Maestro

Cardholder name:

Card no. ___________________________ ___________________________ ___________________________

Expiry date ______/____

Security number (3 digits on reverse of card) ______

Issue number (if applicable): ______

Start date (if applicable): ______

Contact telephone number:

Email address:

Cardholder address if different from above:

Further information

To return your form and for further information about the weekend, please contact:

Council for British Archaeology
St Mary’s House
66 Bootham
York
YO30 7BZ
Telephone: 01904 671417
Email: marketing@archaeologyuk.org
Book online at www.archaeologyUK.org/cba-events

ARCHAEOLOGY FOR ALL

www.archaeologyUK.org
Join us in Suffolk this October, to explore the rich archaeology of the area in the company of leading archaeologists.

From your base in Bury St Edmunds you will enjoy a guided tour of St Edmundsbury Cathedral, a drinks reception and lecture at Moyse’s Hall to set the scene for the weekend. The following day, visit the iconic site of Sutton Hoo in the company of its excavator, Professor Martin Carver, and discover how the multiple-award-winning Norfolk Medieval Graffiti Survey is being brought to Suffolk. On Sunday, step back in time at the remarkable recreation of an Anglo-Saxon village at West Stow, and explore Grime’s Graves, the only Neolithic flint mine open to visitors in Britain.

Places are limited, so book early using the form overleaf or register online at www.archaeologyUK.org/cba-events

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

Friday 17 October
Afternoon  Registration at Moyse’s Hall Museum, Bury St Edmunds and guided tour of St Edmundsbury Cathedral

Evening  Drinks reception at Moyse’s Hall Museum and talk by Professor Martin Carver

Saturday 18 October
Morning  Tour Sutton Hoo with Anglo-Saxon expert Martin Carver
Afternoon  Visit Troston church with Matt Champion, of the Norfolk Medieval Graffiti Survey
Evening  Dinner and talk at St Edmundsbury Refectory

Sunday 19 October
Morning  Tour West Stow Anglo-Saxon Village with Dr Jess Tipper, Suffolk County Archaeologist
Afternoon  Explore Grime’s Graves

All details correct at time of going to press. Please note that the programme is subject to change in adverse weather conditions.