

Timetable

Tuesday 13 May

From 7pm Meal at Italian restaurant ASK in The Grand Assembly Rooms, Blake Street, York city centre

Wednesday 14 May

9.00 – 9.30 Registration & Tea/coffee

9.30 – 9.40 Welcome & aims of the seminar

Gill Grayson, Convenor of FISH & HEIRNET, English Heritage

Session 1: Users & Reusers

9.40 – 11.15

Introduced by Martin Newman (IMSIG, English Heritage)

'Big Data' historic environment projects

Prof. Chris Gosden, EngLald Project, University of Oxford

Tomorrow's standards together

Kirsty Lingstadt & Peter McKeague, RCAHMS

Linking datasets with archives

Victoria Bryant, Archive & Archaeology Service Manager, Worcestershire CCI

Questions to speakers

Session 1: Breakout discussion

11.15 – 11.35 Tea/Coffee break with social media reporting

Session 2: Skills Development

11.35 – 13.15

Introduced by Edmund Lee (English Heritage)

Information management skills gaps

Kenneth Aitchison, Landward Research Ltd.

Skills development in higher education

Prof. Julian Richards, University of York

Professional skills training

Edmund Lee

Questions to speakers

Session 2: Breakout Discussion

13.15 – 14.15 Lunch with social media reporting

Session 3: Information Systems & Technology

Tea/Coffee will be available in the room

14.15 – 15.45

Introduced by Keith May (English Heritage)

Linked Data & heritage vocabularies

Ceri Binding, Hypermedia Research Unit, University of South Wales

Geosemantic technologies

Paul Cripps, Hypermedia Research Unit, University of South Wales

The Portable Antiquities Scheme

Dan Pett, Portable Antiquities ICT Advisor

Questions to speakers

Session 3: Breakout discussion

15.45 – 16.00 Moving forward & close by Mike Heyworth, CBA Director

ENGLISH HERITAGE